Library—

A library, to modify the famous metaphor of Socrates, should be the delivery room for ideas—a place where history comes to life.

Student Teachers

Marie Novak was a student teacher for Mr. Rhoads in the early part of the school year.

Ed Iannarella was a student teacher for Mrs. Overley at the same time as Miss Novak.

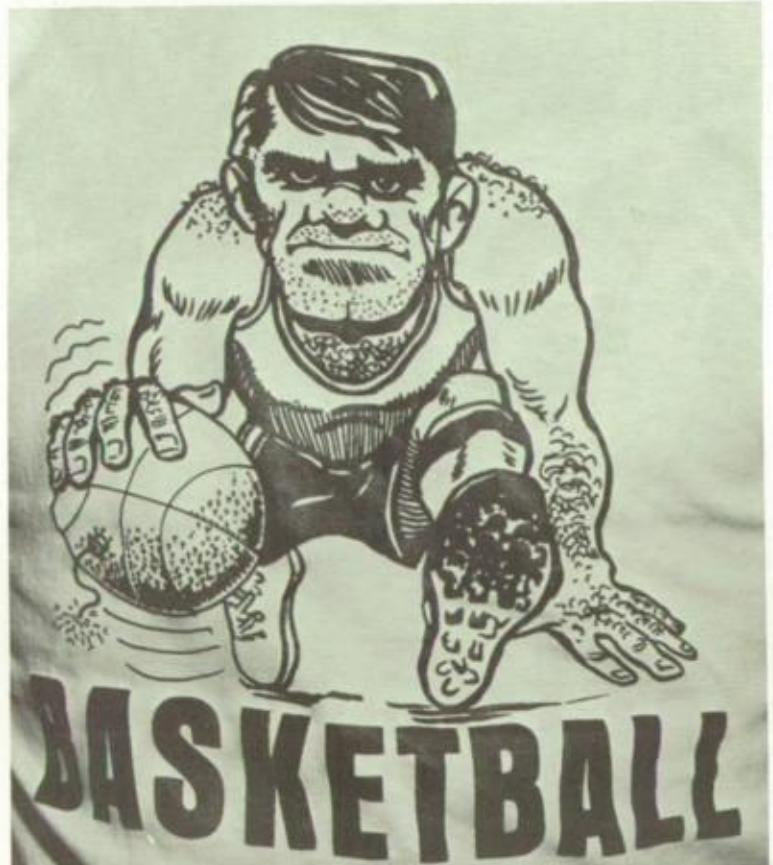

We, the students of PHS hope that both of them felt they had learned something after teaching some of the classes at our school.

He Is Not Dead

I cannot say, and I will not say
That he is dead. He is just away.
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown land
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there.
And you—oh, you, who the wildest yearn
For an old-time step, and the glad return,
Think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here.
Think of him still as the same. I say,
He is not dead—he is just away.

PLAYS

... THE NIGHT THOREAU
SPENT IN JAIL

The Night Thoreau Spent in Jail deals with one of the earliest and perhaps the most famous acts of civil disobedience in American history—Henry David Thoreau's refusal to pay his poll tax in 1846, and the night he spent in jail because of it. During that memorable night, Thoreau takes a long journey of the soul: from being a hermit to rejoining the human race.

WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE'S

... A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM

A Midsummer Night's Dream is one of Shakespeare's most popular comedies and has long been a favorite for amateur productions. The PHS Players did a splendid job. The creativity and varied talents of the cast gave the play a "professional touch" and made it one of Palmyra's most outstanding productions.

Despite the damp outside, inside it was warm with excitement and the crowning was soon at hand . . .

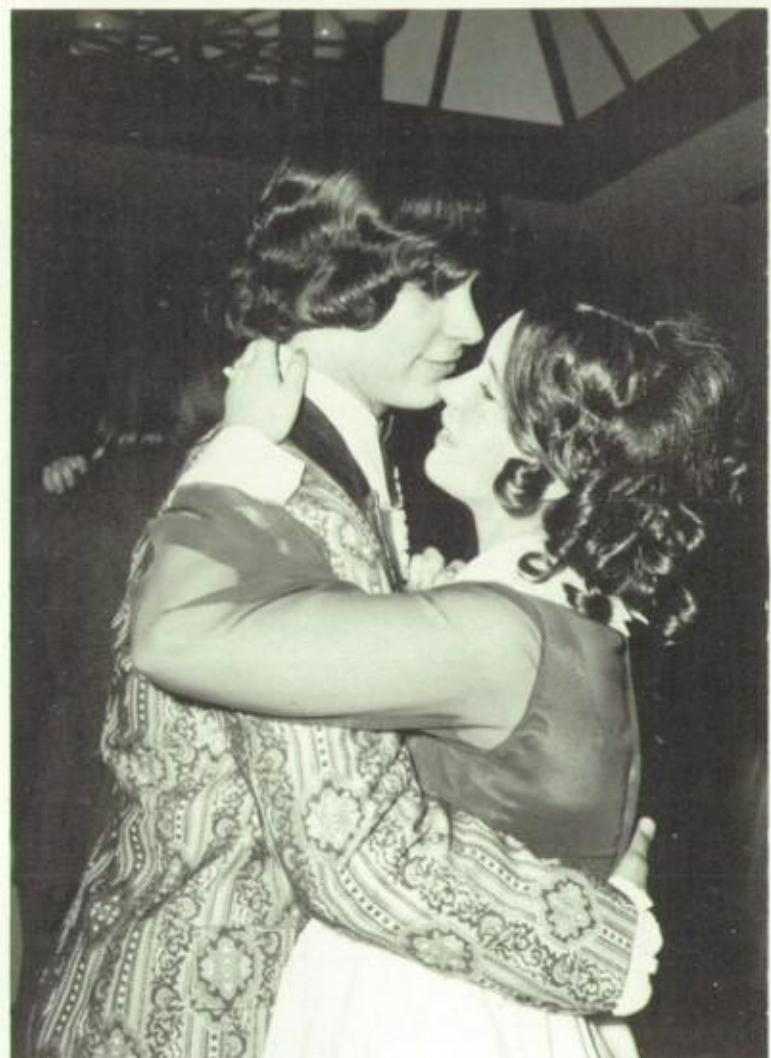

The highlight of the evening came when Cindy Larter was crowned 1973 Homecoming Queen.

For those who anticipated and prepared for this occasion will definitely remember the evening as "A Stairway to Heaven."

APRIL

formality tradition
the prom.
at once seemed a milestone
so far away
now our school days
are slowly drawing to an end.
and among the things we'll remember is today . . .
some people renewing the love
they've shared,
still more with the promise
of a new love,
and others as friends only closer than before.
but it's time to leave most if not all of our friends behind us
and continue on our own path touched by a piece of April.

Mrs. Phyllis Cobello

The incredible job done by the choruses this year was largely due to the enthusiasm of Mrs. Cobello. Trying to develop the seven choruses at one time was an incredible undertaking, but it can be safely said that the groups would not have been what they were without her influence.

COUGARS!

1961: School life began.

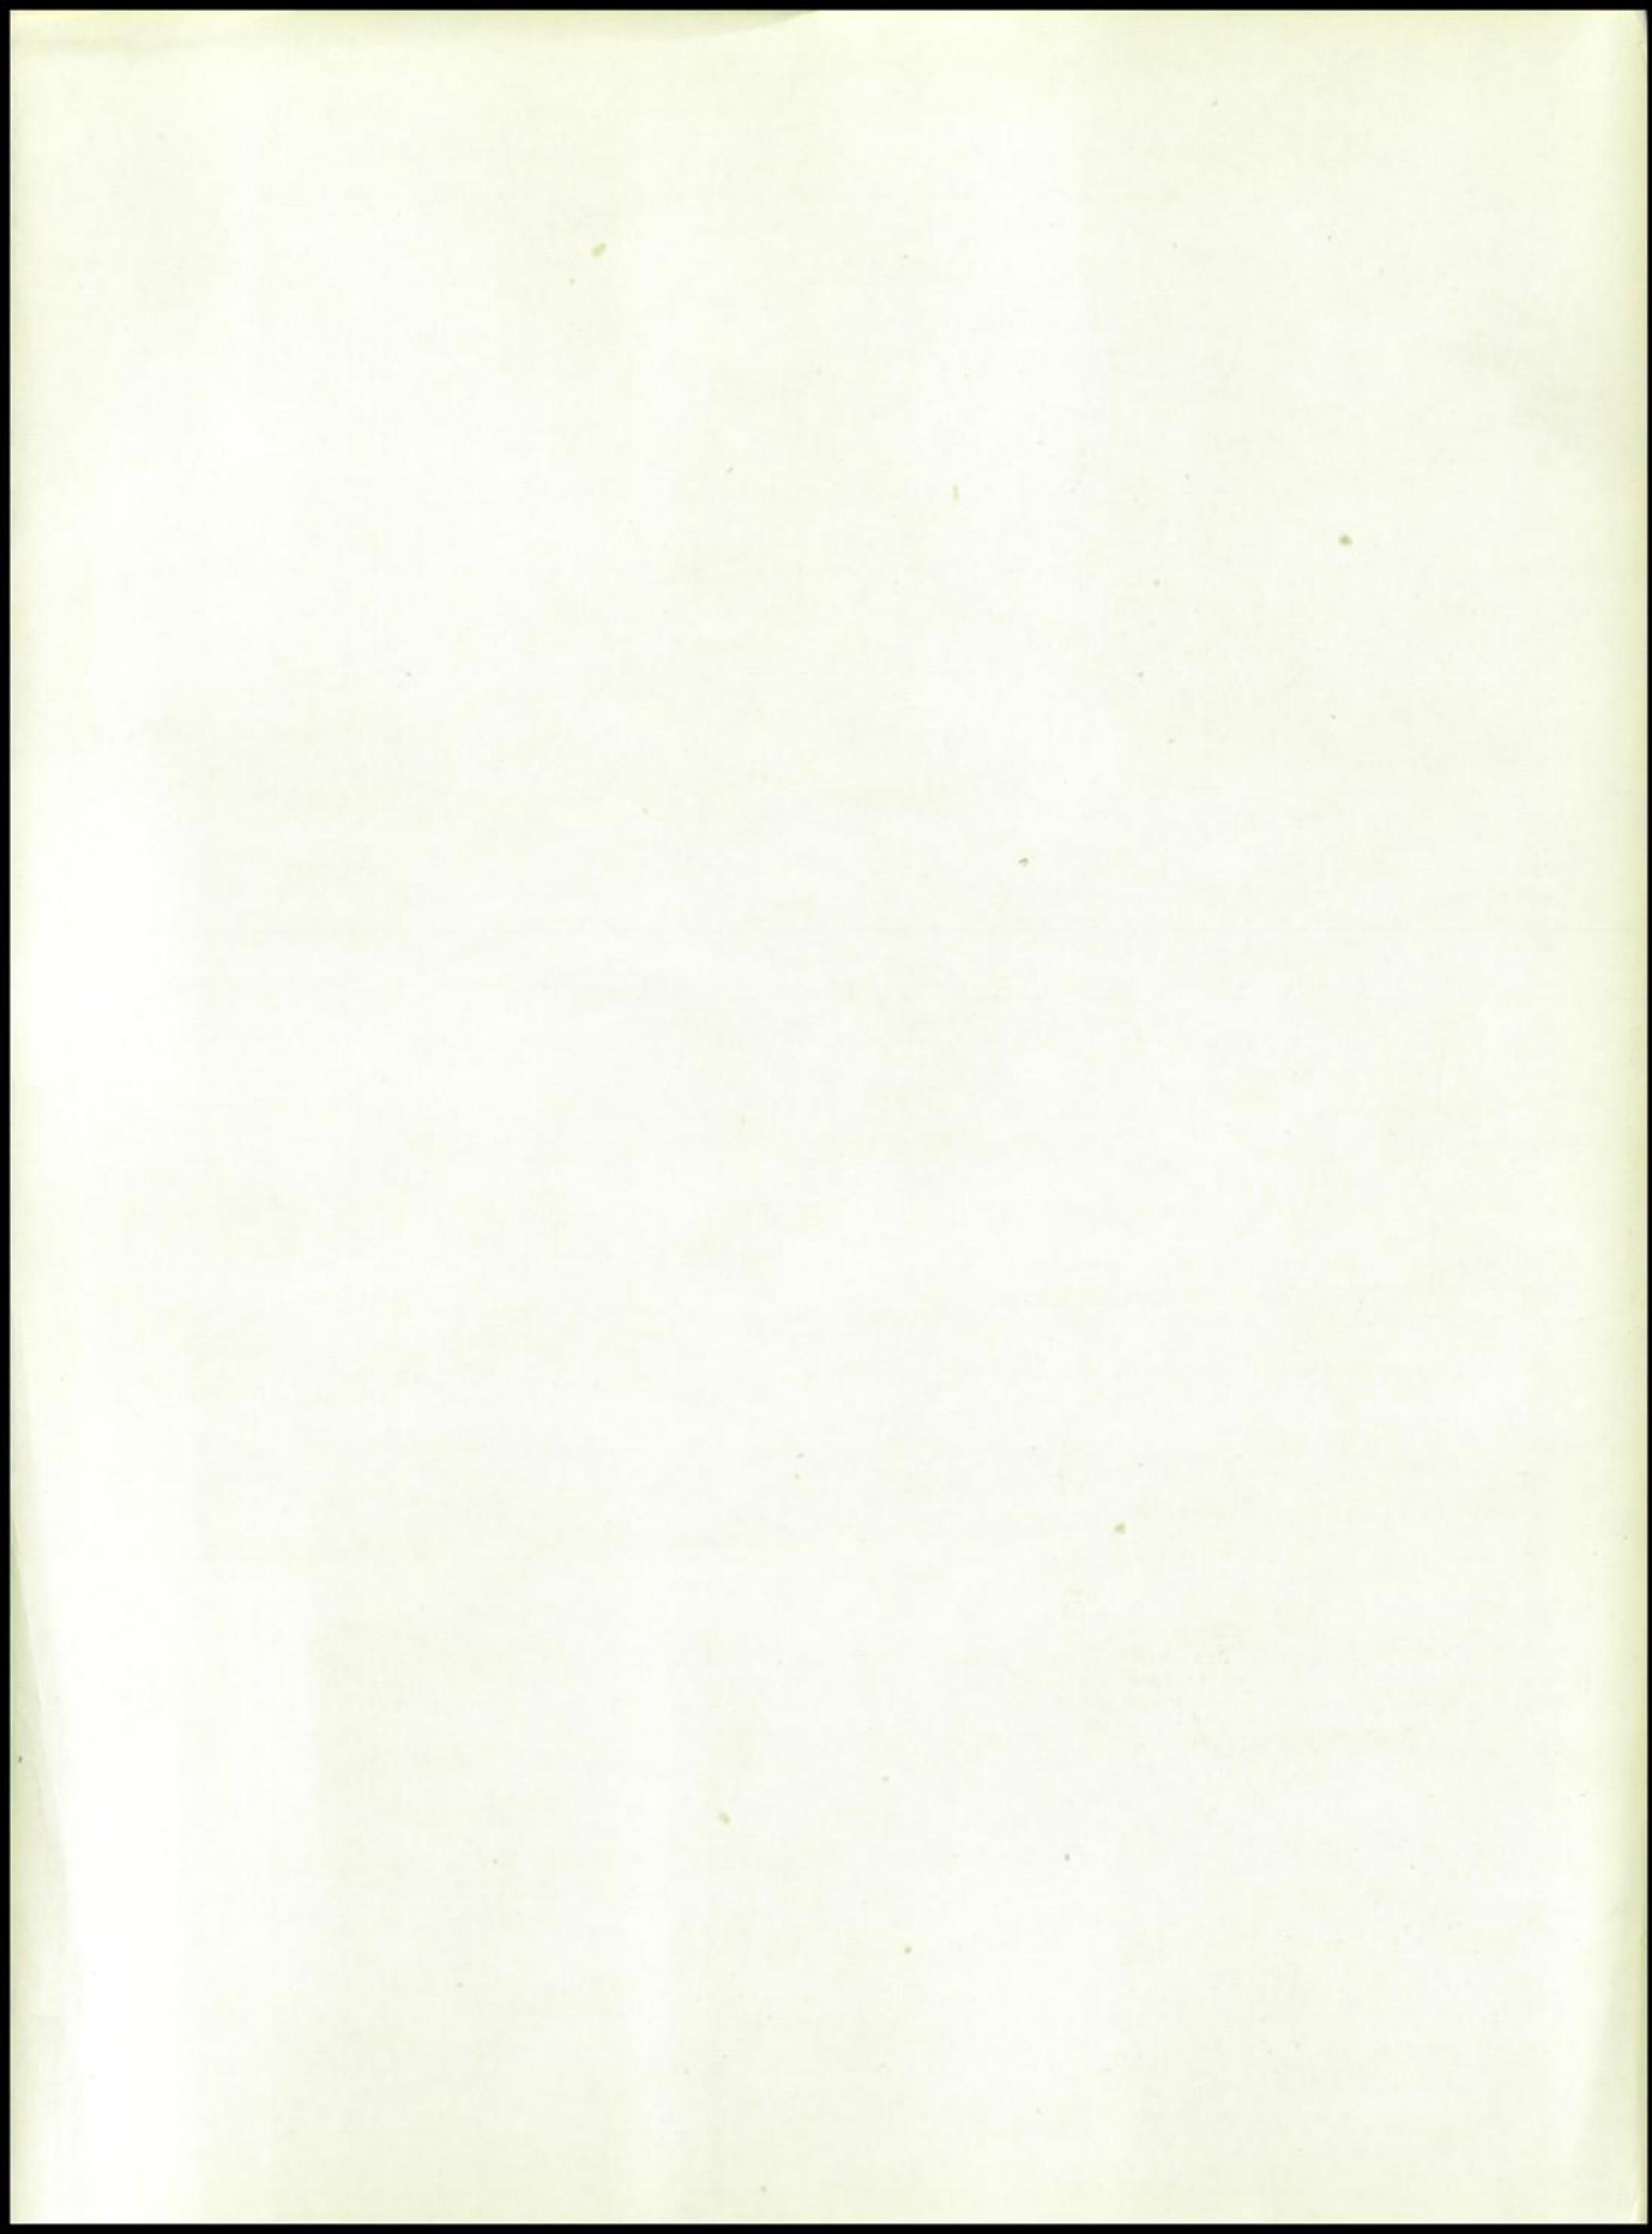

1967: We tried to grow up.

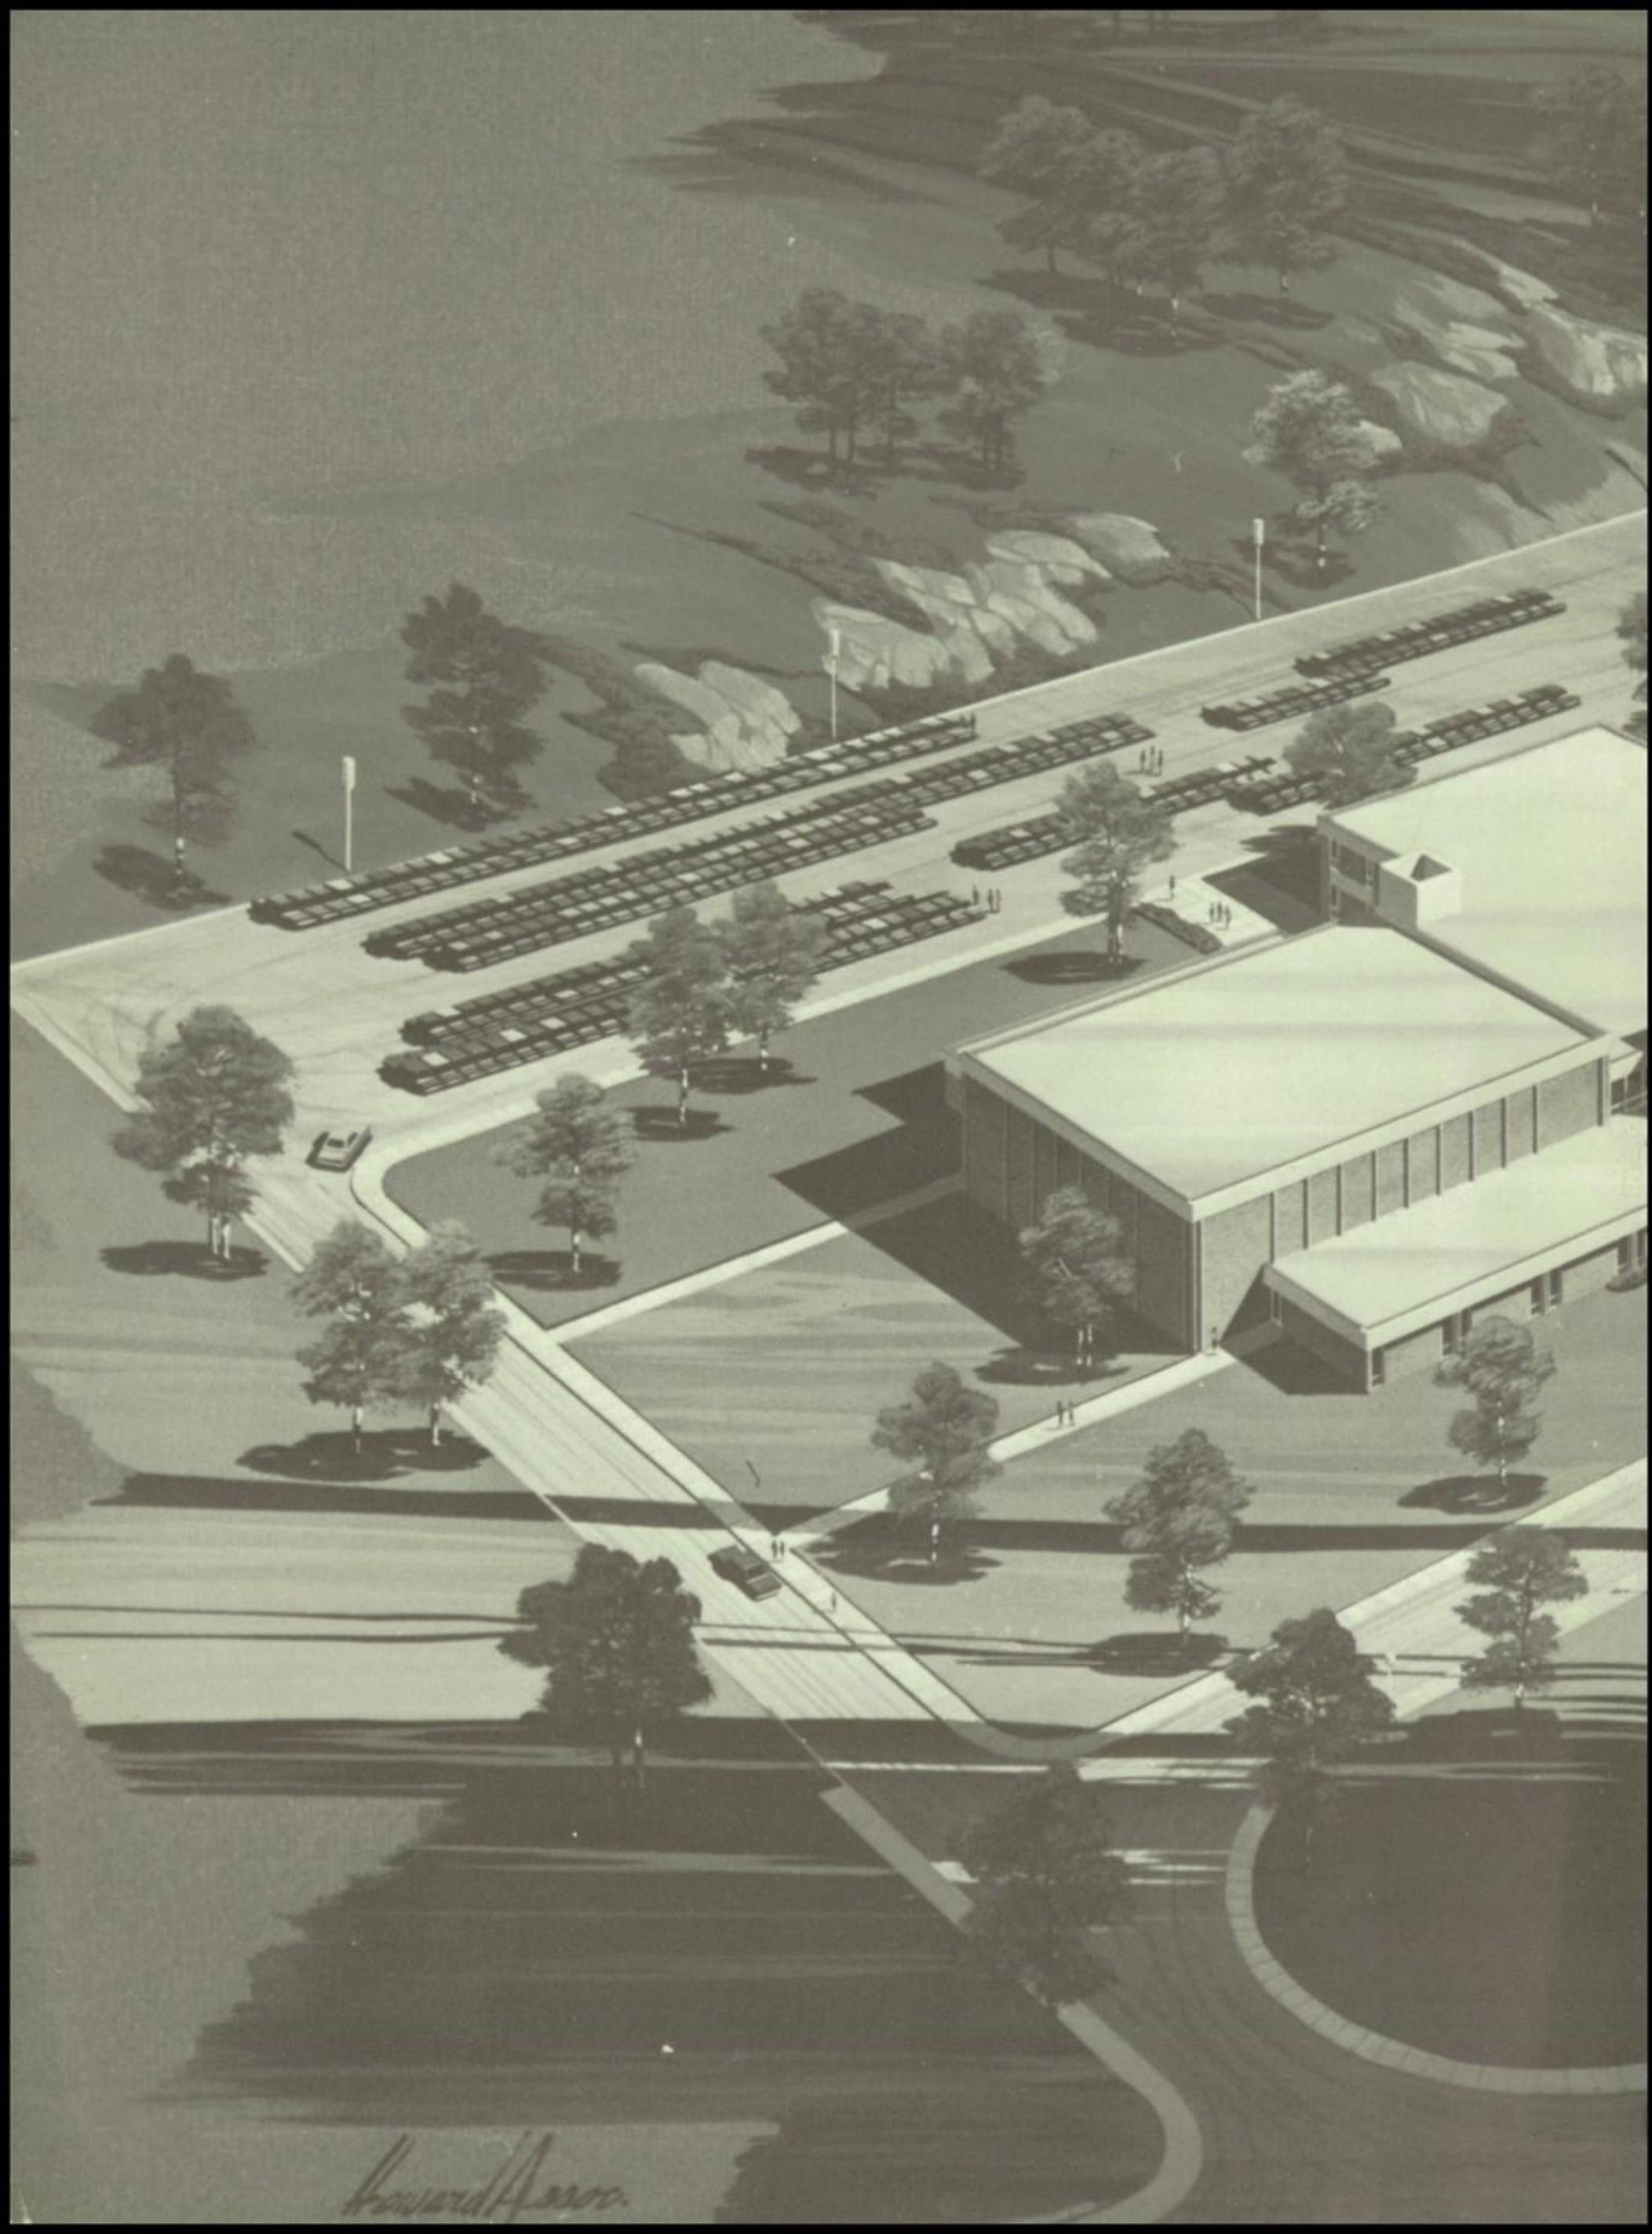

1970: Another new building.

1972: It's just a dream.

1973: It's all a memory.
